Happy New Year

January 1, 2013

We wish everyone a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

2013 will be a busy year for Brookeville as we begin the formal planning for the 2014 bi-centennial celebration of Brookeville's being Capitol for a day. Stay tined for updates.

The town will be planning and contracting work to begin sprucing up our appearance so 2014 will see us at our best.

We wish to thank everyone for their patience and efforts in keeping our town looking beautiful. Due to financial constraints and anticipated 2014 expenses, we had to curtail our maintenance contracts these last few years. This austerity is soon coming to an end. Thank you again!

Brookeville's New Town Clerk

We are very pleased to announce that Diane Teague will be Brookeville's new town clerk. We wish to thank those who applied for the position. It is always gratifying to see residents willing to give of themselves to the benefit of our town.

As an administrator for a small business, Diane brings a great deal of skill and experience to the position of town clerk. We are very fortunate to have Diane and look forward to her joining us.

Diane begins her position on 7 January 2013. Please join us in wishing Diane the best and welcoming her as our new Town Clerk.

6th Annual Salem Chili Cookoff and Auction Saturday, January 5

Saturday, January 5
6:00 pm in Salem Community Hall (Orndorff Hall)
Open to all, Salem United Methodist fundraiser for our Appalachian Service Project crews who will be traveling to Kentucky this summer to help repair homes for those in need.

Bring your best chili to share. Tasting and voting begin at 6.00 pm ($1.00/vote) Auction item preview and silent auction begins at 6:00 pm
Live auction begins at 7:00 pm

Instead of re-gifting or allowing an item to collect dust, donate your unneeded items to the Auction. Then enjoy an evening of entertaining fun with master auctioneer Pastor Janet Craswell. All proceeds go to support our ASP crews.

Items for donation can be brought to the church on Saturday, anytime before 5:30 pm.

For more information, contact Rev. Janet Craswell at 301-774-7774 or
