Historic Area Work Permit for Gravel Roads

The Town Commissioners submitted a Historic Area Work Permit (HAWP) to the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC). The HAWP will be on the July 28, 2021, agenda for the HPC.

HPC approval is being sought, adding tar and chip to Town standard for the surface of all town-maintained roads, parking areas, and resident driveways. All Residents within the Town's municipal boundaries should have received notice of the HPC meeting on July 28 via mail.

Town of Brookeville, MD

Established 1794

Incorporated 1808

The Town of Brookeville is one of 157 municipalities in Maryland. Municipalities are a city or town that has written its charter (a set of laws) and can govern itself separately from the county. It is a formal government with legal authority to exist. The powers that municipalities and counties have been defined in the Maryland State Constitution. Citizens living in municipalities elect their own officials to pass ordinances (local rules), create a budget, and provide certain services and programs. Not all cities and towns have the same services. The citizens living in each municipality can choose the kinds of services they want to have.
