Parking Ordinance

The Town Commissioners are in the process of drafting a Parking Ordinance. The proposed Parking Ordinance will be shared with the Brookeville Planning Commission (BPC) on December 6, 2022, to solicit the BPC comments. Once the Commissioners have a proposed Draft Parking Ordinance, it will be sent out to Town Residents for review and comment.

A notice of a public hearing will be advertised so Town Residents can have their voices heard.

News from the BPC

Parcel 770, the 4.3 acres of land adjacent to the cemetery.

The project is still in the works. The applicant is working on his County and SHA permits. The developer has not returned an approved easement agreement to the Town, which is needed to record the plat. Construction will not commence for several more months until all the permits are finalized, the lots for the four homes are created, and the plats are recorded.

1 High Street Redevelopment, the Old Post Office.

The owner of 1 High Street met on-site with members of the BPC and Residents to discuss the proposed redevelopment of the site on November 2, 2022. The on-site meeting was to help visualize the proposed setback and greenspace buffering area. The owner re-submits his conceptual plans to the BPC and the redevelopment project will be on the agenda for the December 6th BPC meeting. The BPC will check the plans to ensure the redevelopment complies with the Town Historic Village Commercial (HVC) zoning.

All BPC meetings are open to the public, and the agendas are posted on the Town's website a minimum of 1 week before each meeting.
